The invigilators shall be in the exam control room at least 25 minutes before the examination and invigilators are expected to be in the exam halls 15 minutes before the scheduled exam time and the students are expected to be in the halls 15 minutes before. At least 5 minutes time gap is necessary for the invigilators to know the seating plan and to guide the students to settle in their allotted seats.
4. Do not grant the permission to the candidate to go outside the examination hall for any reason, especially either in the first 30 minutes, or in the last 15 minutes, of the examination. In case of any emergency in this regard, Invigilator should accompany the candidate.
5. Extra 20 minutes of time will be given to disabled students during the examination. Convenience concession will continue to be paid such students as per Govt. of Maharashtra decision.
6. Insist the candidate to enter the examination hall as soon as possible and do not allow the candidates to stand in the corridor for last minute revision. Let the candidate to deposit their bags, wallets, books, laptops etc. in the designated area before going to exam hall.
7. The invigilators are requested to maintain norms by not carrying textbooks and other personal material to examination hall.
8. The invigilators are requested to keep on moving and watching the students carefully in the examination hall without sitting at one place, to prevent copying.
9. Mobile phones, pager, programmable calculators and tablets are strictly prohibited in the examination hall to avoid inconvenience to the students.
10. Use of cell phones and i-Pods are strictly prohibited in the examination hall.
11. The staff shall report to the invigilation duty after adjusting the class work if any.
12. The invigilation work shall be adjusted to any staff of the same cadre under unavoidable circumstances with intimation to exam department.

Invigilators should duly announce the following points in the Examination Hall.

1. Students are required to verify the total number of pages in the answer booklet. If the answer booklet is found to be defective, ask the invigilator for replacement of the defective booklet within first five minutes. Once if the student starts writing on the booklet, it will not be replaced.
2. Students are required to verify the question paper whether all the questions are printed visibly or not. If any issues related to printing and visibility of the question paper, ask for the replacement immediately.
3. Each student is required to fill the attendance form prescribed by university.
