Report of Seminar on IPR (Intellectual Property Right) in Innovation

TIME: 2:00 pm TO 5:00 pm

DATE: 20/03/2019

International institute of management science organized A seminar on Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) in innovation was held on 20/03/2019 at IIMS, Chinchwad. The seminar aimed to explore the critical role of IPR in fostering and protecting innovation, and to provide insights into the effective management of intellectual property in the innovation process.

Key Sessions and Highlights:

This session emphasized the importance of IPR in fostering innovation. The speaker discussed how patents, trademarks, and copyrights provide the necessary protection for innovators to commercialize their ideas without the fear of infringement.

This session provided practical advice on managing intellectual property in the innovation process. Topics included strategies for securing patents, managing IP portfolios, and leveraging IP assets for competitive advantage.

Participants engaged in discussions on ethical dilemmas commonly encountered in research and strategies to address them.

The seminar on Intellectual Property Rights in Innovation was a highly informative and valuable event. It provided participants with a deeper understanding of the critical role of IPR in fostering and protecting innovation. The insights gained from this seminar will help innovators and organizations better manage their intellectual property, driving future innovations and contributing to economic growth.

Report of Seminar on Role IPR in Digital Era

TIME: 3:00 pm TO 5:00 pm

DATE: 22/08/2018

TOPIC: Seminar on Role IPR in Digital Era

International institute of management science organized the seminar on the role of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) in the digital era aimed to explore the evolving landscape of intellectual property protection in the context of rapid technological advancements. Participants included professionals from legal, business, and technology sectors interested in understanding the intersection of IPR and digital innovation. Director DR. Milind Marathe, prof. wagh sir, prof. sarang dani sir, these all present from this lecture.

Also MBA first year students mostly present in this lecture.

Key Sessions and Highlights:

1. Introduction to IPR in the Digital Age:
  - The seminar began with an overview of how intellectual property rights are adapting to the challenges posed by digital technologies such as AI, blockchain, and the internet of things (IoT).
2. Challenges and Opportunities:
  - Discussions were held on the unique challenges digital technologies present to traditional IPR frameworks, including issues of digital piracy, data privacy, and the protection of software and algorithms.
3. Digital Copyright Issues:
  - Specific sessions addressed copyright issues in the digital space, including challenges related to digital content distribution, streaming platforms, and the implications of AI-generated content.
4. Patenting Digital Innovations:
  - Practical insights were provided on patenting digital innovations, covering topics such as software patents, business methods, and the patentability of AI and machine learning algorithms.
5. Trademark and Brand Protection:
  - Experts discussed strategies for safeguarding trademarks and brands in the digital age, including the management of online reputation and combating counterfeit goods online.

The seminar on the role of IPR in the digital era provided a timely and insightful exploration of how intellectual property rights are adapting to the complexities of digital technologies. It underscored the importance of proactive strategies for protecting digital innovations and assets in a rapidly evolving landscape.
