

Report on STUNA-2020

Date: 11 & 12 Dec-2020

Student of Yashaswi's International Institute of Management Science, Pune participated in the Two day Student Conference – STUNA 2020 which is organised by NIPM – Conducted virtually on 11th and 12th December 2020 on the theme HR 5.0

STUNA 2020 was a significant event organized by the National Institute of Personnel Management (NIPM), conducted virtually due to the global pandemic. The event focused on the theme "HR 5.0," exploring the future of human resources in the context of technological advancements and evolving business landscapes.

Objectives:

- To discuss the implications of HR 5.0 on the workforce and organizational structures.
- To explore the integration of advanced technologies like AI, automation, and big data in HR practices.
- To provide insights into the future trends and strategies in human resource management.
- To create a platform for HR professionals, academicians, and students to share knowledge and experiences.

STUNA 2020 provided valuable insights into the future of human resources, highlighting the transformative potential of HR 5.0. The virtual format allowed for broader participation and engagement, making it a successful and impactful event for all attendees. The discussions and sessions emphasized the need for HR professionals to embrace technological advancements while keeping the human element at the core of their practices.

With its National Office at Kolkata, NIPM has a total membership of about 35,000 spread over 53 Chapters across India. NIPM is a non-profit making body devoted to the upliftment and knowledge sharing to the HR Professionals.

THEME OF THE EVENT

The Fourth & Fifth Industrial Revolution is blurring the lines between people and technology. The impact of these changes on the way people work is very significant.

HR 5.0, is a framework which is slowly budding for shaping people's strategies in the Fourth & Fifth Industrial Revolution stage.

This is an initial response to the changing role of organizations in the context of this challenge. It explores why the Fourth & Fifth Industrial Revolution creates the impetus for transformation in people strategies and HR practices, outlines what business leaders—including Chief People Officers, Chief Human Resource Officers, CEOs, and other C-suite leaders—can do to respond and describes how organizations are already responding to the need for change, with examples of emerging roles, technologies and critical skills for the future of HR.

Future HR is in the hands of students who are graduating now and this is an apt Theme for this years edition of Student National Conference STUNA 2020, equipping them with the latest changes.
