Webinar on "Intellectual Property Rights"

Date: 11/05/2021

Time: 11.00 am

Speaker:

Dr. Aniruddha Digraskar
Founder- Enrich Solutions
Director- Enzyrich Biotech Solutions Pvt. Ltd

Yashaswi Education Society's International Institute of Management Science organized a webinar on Intellectual Property Rights on 11/05/2021. Dr. Shivaji Mundhe, Director HMS, Staff, faculty members and students of HMS as well as other Institute were present for the webinar.

Dr. Shivaji Mundhe, Director HMS welcomed the guest speaker Dr. Aniruddha Digraskar, and the participants. He briefed about various activities conducted by Yashaswi Education Society's International Institute of Management Science.

Dr. Shivaji Mundhe said, that today is the digital era, and there is a lot of importance of intellectual property rights. He said, with intellectual property rights, the innovations and knowledge generated cannot be stolen by anybody. There are various types of intellectual property rights patents, copyrights and trademarks. In various industries like pharmaceuticals, agriculture, education, entertainment and media, companies and individuals are filing intellectual property rights so that their innovations or ideas cannot be copied by other firms. IPR is important in every field and lot of job opportunities are created.

Ms. Namrata Kadam introduced the guest Dr. Aniruddha Digraskar.

Dr. Aniruddha Digraskar started with brief background of his company and its present status. He said that the organization started in 2008. Before launching the organization, he received guidance of industrial experts related to procedures and legal documentations. He started with application of his research based veterinary products for patent and trademarks for being protected from copying by others.

Dr. Aniruddha Digraskar elaborated the process of applying for a patent. He said, the first step is to write down about our idea and the invention we are planning to patent and how we are going to get the patent. In his case he identified a problem of dairy industry - mastitis which is a disease in which the animals stop giving milk. He invented an oral therapy to recover animals from the disease. He started documentation and drafting the same in 2008. He had to document about the advantages and how it is benefiting the industry. Before this product there was no such product in India and initially this idea was rejected by people as there were only antibiotics in the form of injectable were available. The product which was invented by Dr. Digraskar was easy for administration and the exact enzymatic and biotechnological base medicine for the cure of mastitis. Before applying he written all technical information. After writing, for proving the formula, he approached organizations like department of biotechnology, Government Veterinary College, the product was tried successfully and he approached the patent agent or patent attorney who guided him to write it in legal terms.

The step two include preparing drawings, diagrams or sketches explaining the working of the invention. The drawings and diagrams should be designed so as to explain the working of the invention in better way with visual illustrations. They play an important role in patent application.

The third step is to check whether the invention is patentable subject matter. The fourth step is to find out whether your invention meets novelty criteria as per the Indian patent act. The patentability opinion is provided by the patent professionals upon conducting an extensive search and forming a patentability report. In this step, the patent agent or attorney who is working on your invention helps you in finding out whether your invention meets all patentability criteria which are: a. Novelty b. Non-obviousness c. Industrial application.

The fifth step is to draft a patent application and filing a patent application in the Patent office.

The sixth step is Publication of the application. Up on filing the complete specification along with application for patent, the application is published after 18 months of first filing. An early publication request can be made along with prescribed fees if you do not wish to wait till the expiry of 18 months from the date of filing for publishing your patent application. Generally the patent application is published within a month form request form early publication.

The seventh step he elaborated is the examination of patent application. Only after receiving request for examination that is RFE. Up on receiving this request the controller gives your patent application to a patent examiner who examines the patent application with different patentability criteria.

The examiner creates a first examination report of the patent application upon reviewing it for above terms. This is called FER (First examination report). Everything step taken with a patent application before grant of patent is generally called as patent prosecution.

The next step is to respond to objections Majority of patent applicants will receive some type of objections which would be mentioned in first examination report. The best thing to do it analyze the examination report with a patent attorney (patent agent) and creating a written response to the objections raised in the examination report.

If the response to objections raised in first examination report could not resolve the objections completely then a hearing (meeting in person or on video conference) can be requested. In hearing, you (the inventor) along with patent attorney can discuss with the examiner about the resolution of objections or making changes to the patent application as per the suggestion of the examiner (panel). This communication (written or in hearing) between patent office and patent application (inventor) is to ensure that all objections raised in the patent application are resolved. (if not the patent will not be granted) and the inventor has his fair chance to prove (argue) his point and establish novelty and inventive step over existing prior arts. Upon finding the patent application in order of grant, it is a grant to the patent applicant as early as possible. Thus Patent Granted.

He noted that as their product was novel, they did not have any objections and challenge by anybody and he succeeded to get the patent filed in the name of Enzyrich with all kind of legalities in 2010.

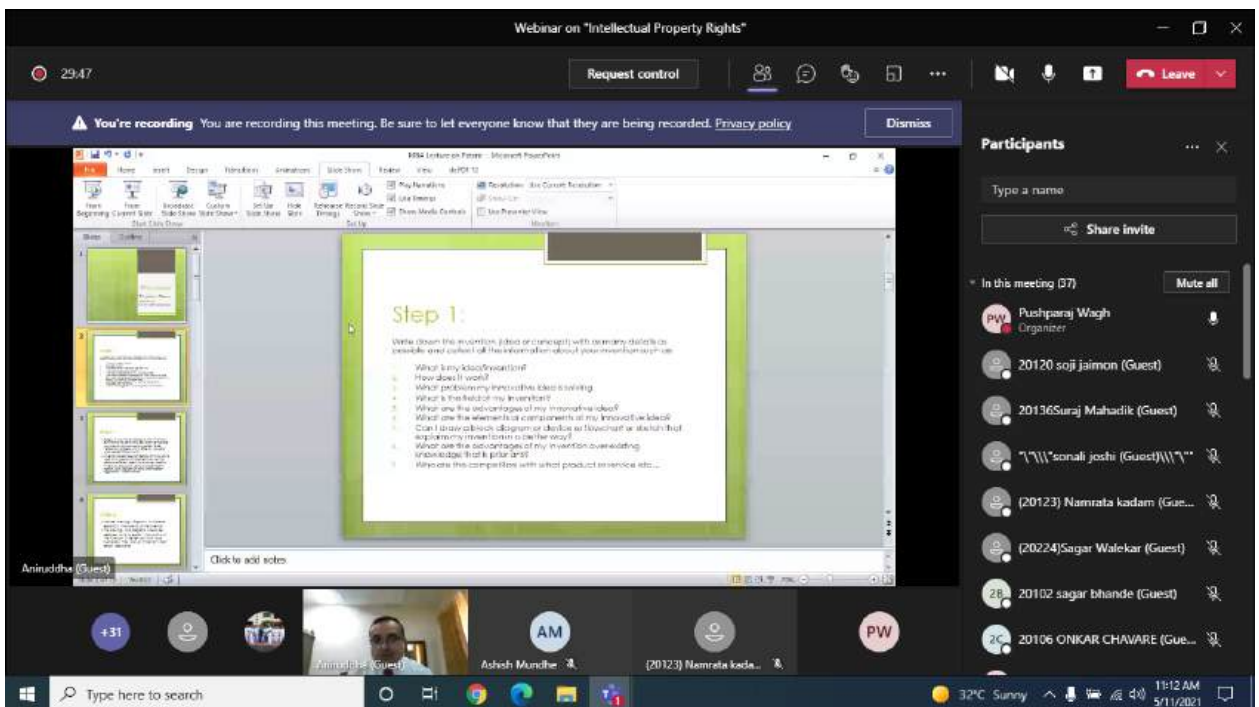

Dr. Digaskar also discussed the procedure and the documentations like form- A, technical and legal aspects required for registrations of a trademark. He mentioned that he has registered 12 trademarks.

He started a private limited firm in the year 2018 named Enzyrich Biotech Solutions Private Limited. It is involved in Research and experimental development on social sciences and humanities. The trademark registered as Enzyrich can be used for many class 5 and class 35 sections in various formulations based on veterinary, human or poultry formulations. The formulations are protected with the trademark.

- Respond to objections

- This is a chance for an inventor to communicate his novelty over prior arts found in the examination report. Report of Webinar on “Why IP is important in academia?”

Date: 26/04/2021

Time: 03.00 pm

Speaker: Dr. Abhay Jere, Chief Innovation Officer, MoE's Innovation Cell.

Dr. Mohit Gambhir, Innovation Director, MoE's Innovation Cell.

Dr. Abhay Jere elaborated the importance of intellectual property. He said, the researchers and academicians should convert the knowledge into wealth through innovation, product development, startups, and different ventures.

The theme of intellectual property is extremely important for India. If we want to emerge as five Trillion dollar economy, then we have to strengthen our manufacturing sector that can be only done through our MSMEs. We need to have huge amount of MSMEs, for creation of employment on large scale.

Large number of ideas need to be generated, and ensure that those ideas need to be converted in enterprises. Youngsters need to be motivated to encash on demographic dividend, get out of the mindset of getting only marks, and start looking at ideas, problems which we can solve.

He informed that government has announced Kapila initiative where government expects that higher education institutes to go ahead and file Intellectual property.

The faculty and students need to be imparted training about various procedures involved in Intellectual Property filing. The government also has planned to give funding support to educational institutes to promote IP filing.

Dr. Mohit Gambhir, Director, innovation Cell started his session by informing that IPR and awareness of IPR is increasing, we are in a knowledge based economy which is driven by Ideas and concepts. In this universities have key role to play.

In the knowledge oriented economy, universities and research institutions play a key and dynamic role in the economy.

Universities and research institutions are entangled in many types of researches with enormous potential of creating value and attend the problems in the society

He quoted the example of Amnon Shashua, Amar Bose, Frank Thomson.

Website. : www.iims.ac.in E-mail : info@iims.ac.in

He also quoted the examples of 11 important innovations that came from university research like the seat belt, the internet, periodic table, rocket fuel, Gatorade, Flu shots, chemotherapy drugs, CAT scan, Solar power, ultra sound etc

He discussed the data related to number of patents, publications and quality of research with reference to countries like United States, China, and India

He said, if professors spend time gathering data and writing research papers, the city may never become a startup city. However, if those professors start companies to commercialize their intellectual property, odds increase that their efforts will result in successful startups which will create a demonstration effect that draws more talent and capital to the city

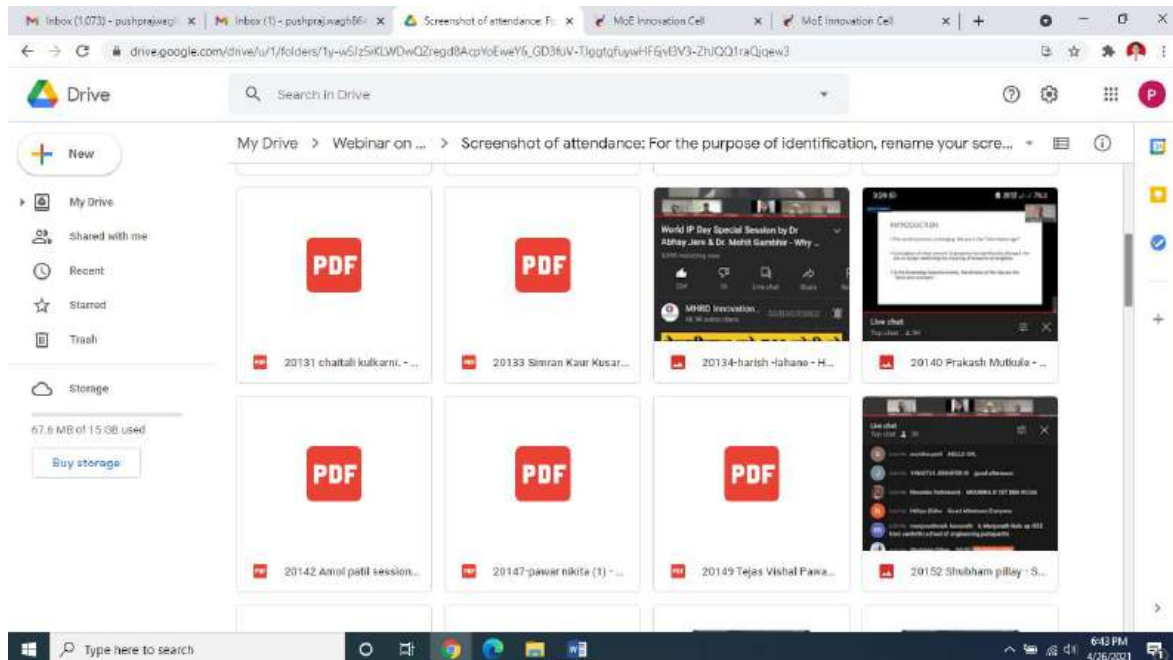

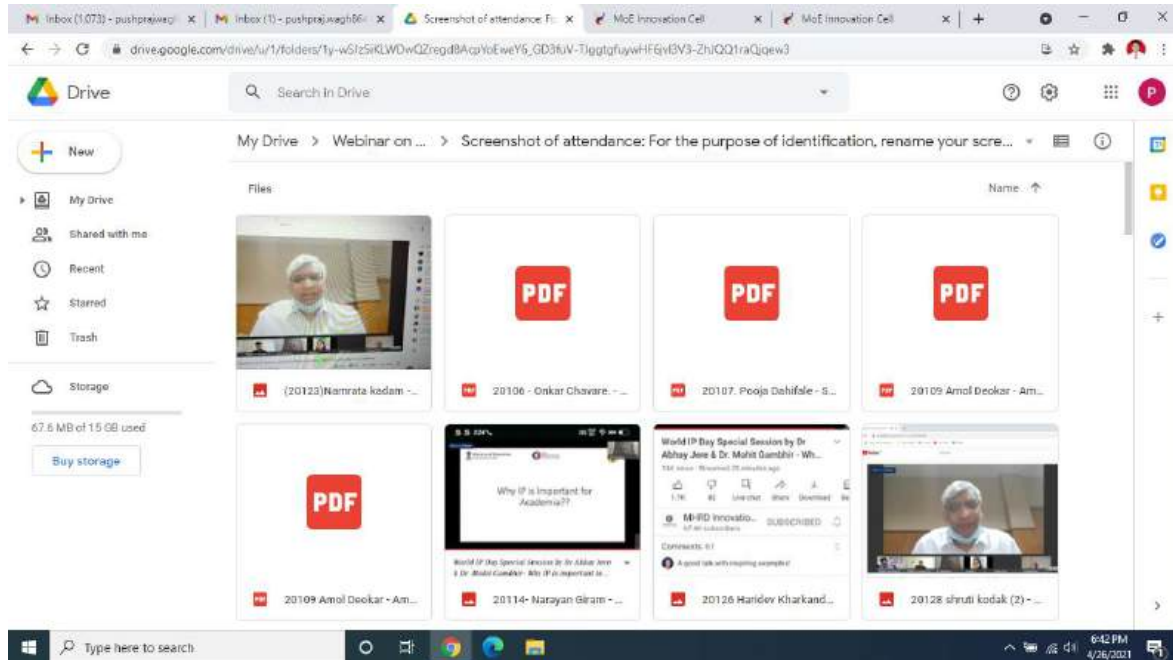

He said the universities and public research institutions are the factories of the knowledge economy. Intellectual property adds another mechanism for universities to disseminate the knowledge that they generate and to have that knowledge used in the economic sector.

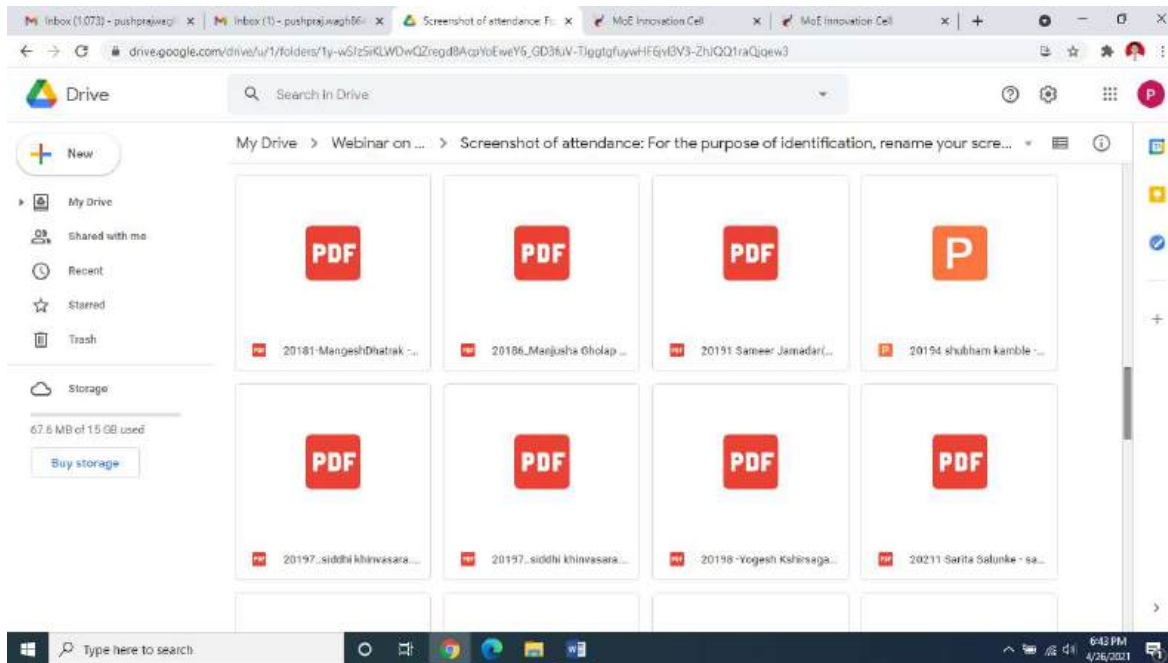

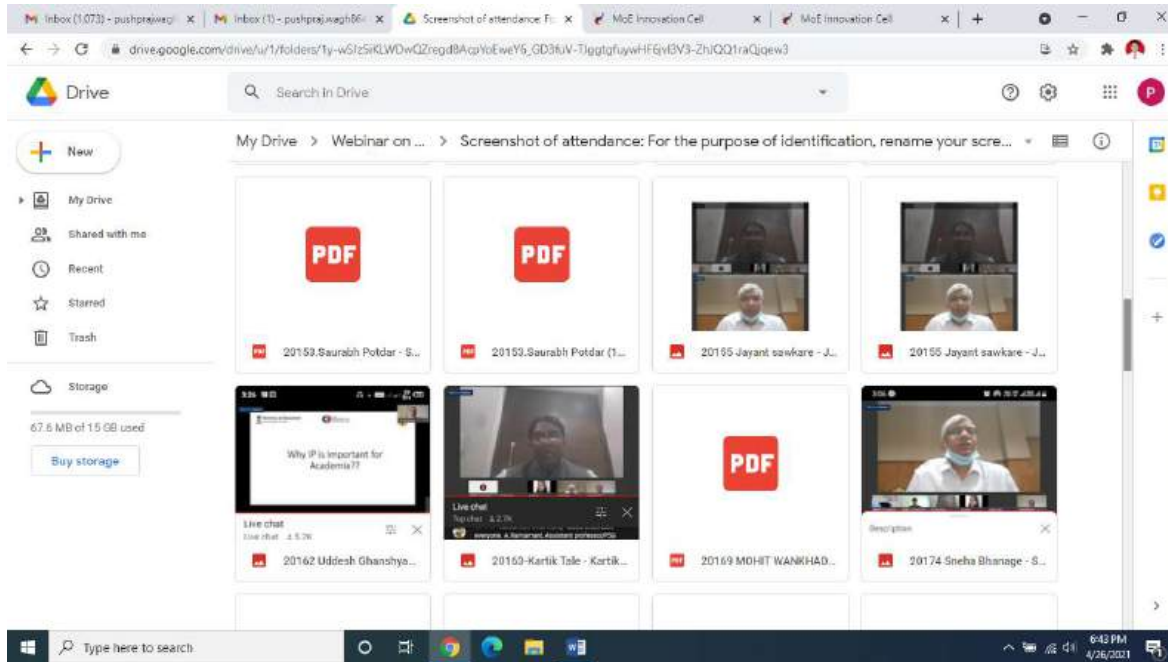

The universities and research institutions should create the inductive culture need to learn how to generate revenue out of intellectual property.
