Report on Ganesh Festival – 2018

The Ganesh Festival, also known as Ganesh Chaturthi, is a vibrant and joyous celebration dedicated to Lord Ganesha, the remover of obstacles and the god of new beginnings. In 2020, the International Institute of Management Science (IIMS) organized a grand celebration of Ganesh Festival on campus, fostering a sense of unity and cultural pride among students and staff.

The festival was inaugurated with the traditional installation of the Ganesh idol on September 13 - September 23, 2018. The ceremony was conducted with great reverence, featuring rituals such as the Pran Pratishtha (invocation) and the Aarti (devotional song).

Each day of the festival began with a morning Aarti, followed by prayers and bhajans (devotional songs). The Aarti was led by different student groups, showcasing the diverse talents and devotional spirit within the campus community.

The Ganesh Festival 2020 at IIMS was a harmonious blend of tradition, devotion, and cultural expression. Despite the challenges posed by the pandemic, the event was conducted with enthusiasm and adherence to safety measures. The collective efforts of the Cultural Committee, students, and staff resulted in a memorable celebration that reinforced the values of unity, respect, and environmental consciousness.

Seminar Details:

First speaker was Gajanan sir. He discuss about the incident took place in company like Maruti, Bosch regarding the dispute took place between workers and management and the HR were beaten to death. He also discussed about that actually situation in the companies and as per the dispute has come down. He was asked a question that is betterment in education of labour force a reason of dispute? Sir answered as improvement in education is helping to settle the dispute it is not the reason of dispute.

Second speaker was Sambajirao Kakde. He is Advocate by profession. Sir discussed about his personal experience regarding the same. He gave the statistical data about the labour dispute as per he stated in 80s and 90s 1200 suit were filed per year and now it has reduced to 320 suit per year. He was asked a question for the audience that is generation gap a reason for get peace to unrest he answered that there is nothing like that we require youth but experience is also equally necessary as the youth. According to him the mixture of youth and experience is the reason for unrest to peace.

Third speaker was Abhijeet Shah. He is also an advocate by profession. Sir told about what the actual scenario of companies. He discussed that as he goes for the lecture in corporate he tell about the laws regarding labour and management. As per him the companies want that what is taught to them about the laws, should also be told to the union leaders as well as to whole union which will help in smooth conduct of business.

The conclusion was that, the companies are changing the point of view. The companies are focusing on workforce flexibility, society culture which will lead to unrest to peace.

Outcome of the Activity: HR Students got insight about Industrial Relation Strategies for smooth flow of work.

Notice

All the Students of MBA are hereby informed that institute is going to celebrating the "Surgical Strike Memorial Day" on 04/09/2018, 9 AM

For International Institute of Management Science,

Report on Surgical Strike Memorial Day

Date: 04th October 2018

Time: 09.00am to 11.00am

Coordinator: Mr. Pavan Sharma

Topic: Surgical Strike Memorial Day

Surgical Strike Smruti Din (Memorial Day) commemorates the bravery and strategic success of the Indian Armed Forces' surgical strikes on September 29, 2016. This report outlines the events and activities organized to mark this significant day.

The surgical strikes were a response to the Uri attack, where 19 Indian soldiers were killed. The strikes targeted terrorist launch pads across the Line of Control (LoC) in Pakistan-administered Kashmir.

Objectives

1. To honor the bravery of the soldiers who participated in the surgical strikes and to remember their contributions.
2. To educate the public about the significance of the surgical strikes and their impact on national security.
3. To instill a sense of pride and patriotism among citizens.

Lieutenant General Rajendra Nimbhorkar was invited to have a discussion with the students on the occasion of Surgical Strike Memorial Day. He stated many incidents of bravery and challenges encountered by him during his tenure of posting on LOC. He shared his experience from Tawang and Kargill.

He also expressed his opinion on Surgical strike conducted by India to give a very strong message of reaction. He also said that this strike has changed the image of India and India has given a very strong answer to the terrorism. He also remembered Shivaji Maharaj and his war tactics and how they are relevant till now.

The anniversary of the surgical strikes was celebrated with great enthusiasm and respect across India. The events honored the bravery of the soldiers, educated the public about the importance of the operation, and fostered a sense of national pride.

Report on "Kite Competition"

Date:- 15/01/2019

Time: 10:00am

International institute of management science organize kite The Kite Competition -2020 to celebrate the joy of kite flying and bring the community together. The event aimed to promote outdoor activity, creativity, and friendly competition among participants of all ages. The bright and sunny day provided the perfect backdrop for colorful kites to soar high in the sky.

The event kicked off with an opening ceremony where Dr.Milind Marathe sir welcomed participants and spectators. They highlighted the cultural significance of kite flying and encouraged everyone to enjoy the day.

Kite Flying Sessions:

The competition was divided into multiple sessions, each focusing on different aspects of kite flying: Best Design: Participants showcased their creatively designed kites. Judges evaluated the kites based on originality, aesthetics, and craftsmanship.

Highest Flight: Competitors aimed to fly their kites to the highest altitude. This session tested the participants' skill in kite handling and control.

Longest Flight Time: The objective was to keep the kite airborne for the longest duration, demonstrating the stability and endurance of the kite.

Stunt and Maneuver: Participants performed various tricks and maneuvers with their kites, displaying their expertise and control.

The Kite Competition 2020 was a vibrant and successful event, bringing together kite enthusiasts and the community for a day of fun and excitement. The colorful kites against the blue sky and the enthusiastic participation made it a memorable experience for all.

A special thanks to the organizing committee, volunteers, judges, participants, and spectators for their contribution to the event's success. Their collective efforts ensured a smooth and enjoyable competition.

The Session close with Vote of thanks by Dr.Pushpraj Wagh

Report on "International Yoga Day"

Date:- 21/06/2019

Time:-10.00 am

International Day of Yoga is celebrated every year on June 21 to raise global awareness about the benefits of the ancient Indian practice. Yashaswi Education Society's International Institute of Management Science organized Yoga day on this occasion on 21st June 2019. Faculty members, staff, students and citizens from nearby area participated in this session.

The session started with welcome address by Dean Dr. Rajendra Sabnis. He discussed that in our busy life, remaining fit is very important to stay active and perform the daily activities better. Yoga and exercise is one of the ways with which we can keep ourselves physically and mentally fit and active. He further said that International Yoga Day is the occasion where we should decide to practice Yoga not only on this day but on regular basis. Yoga and meditation if practiced regularly, it also improves immune systems and helps us to fight many diseases.

Ms. Shraddha Nashikkar, a renowned Yoga practitioner, was invited for guiding the participants. Dr. Rajendra Sabnis welcomed Ms. Shraddha with sapling. Ms. Shraddha discussed and demonstrated some ways and dimensions of different types of Yogasanas and pranayama.

While demonstrations, she reckoned many benefits of early rising and practicing yoga. Speaking to the participants, she also pointed out the contribution of yoga in maintaining fitness and good health and how it helps students to memorize something and understand a concept and its context. She said that yoga is the scientific way of living healthy and increasing life expectancy. It keeps the physician away and helps various parts of the body perform their functions smoothly in proper coordination. It strengthens the immune system and does internal cleansing of blood, body parts, body systems, organs, veins & arteries.

Participants learned various Yogasanas and expressed gratitude towards the Institute for organizing the event.

The programme was concluded with vote of thanks by Mr. Pavan Sharma.

Report on "Anti-Terrorism Day"

Date:- 21/06/2019

Time:-10.00 am

International Institute of Management Science organized antiterrorism day on date 21 May-2019

Antiterrorism Day was observed on 21 May-2019 at IIMS with a commitment to promote peace and educate the community about the dangers of terrorism and the importance of unity in combating it. The day aimed to spread awareness about the impact of terrorism on society and to honor the memory of those who have suffered due to terrorist acts.

The event began with an opening ceremony that included a welcome address by Director Dr.Milind Marathe who emphasized the significance of Antiterrorism Day and the need for collective efforts to fight against terrorism. A moment of silence was observed in honor of the victims of terrorism worldwide.

Antiterrorism Day 2019 was a successful and impactful event that brought together people from various walks of life to stand united against terrorism. It provided a platform for education, awareness, and community engagement, fostering a collective resolve to combat terrorism and build a peaceful society.

Special thanks to the organizing committee, volunteers, speakers, and participants whose efforts made the event a success. Their dedication and commitment were instrumental in spreading the message of peace and resilience.

The programme was concluded with vote of thanks by Mr.Mahesh Mahankal Sir
