Report on Cultural Event – International Womens Day 2022

International Women's Day, celebrated on March 8, 2022, was marked by a powerful street play at the International Institute of Management Science (IIMS). The event aimed to raise awareness about women's issues and celebrate their achievements and contributions. The street play highlighted key themes of gender equality, empowerment, and societal change.

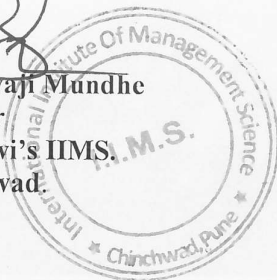

The street play was centered around the theme "Break the Bias," focusing on the various forms of discrimination and challenges women face in their daily lives. The play sought to challenge stereotypes and promote gender equality.

The narrative was crafted to depict real-life scenarios and struggles, aiming to resonate with the audience and inspire change.

The event received widespread support from the IIMS community. Faculty members, staff, and students turned out in large numbers to watch the performances and participate in the discussions.

The street play performed on International Women's Day 2022 at IIMS was a resounding success, effectively raising awareness about critical issues affecting women and promoting the message of gender equality. The event ensured a powerful and engaging presentation that resonated with the audience. The event not only highlighted the challenges women face but also celebrated their resilience and strength, inspiring the IIMS community to work towards a more inclusive and equitable society.

Report of Session on “Human Rights”

Date: 23/02/2022

Time: 11.00 am

Speaker:

Adv. Chandrakant Shinde
Practicing Advocate, Pune

Yashaswi Education Society's International Institute of Management Science organized a webinar on Human Rights on 23rd Feb 2022 at 11.00 am. All students of MBA, MCA, faculty members and non teaching staff were present for the webinar.

Dr. Shivaji Mundhe, Director of the Institute welcomed the Guest as well as participants on this occasion. He discussed the purpose and objective of the session that every human being has been given certain rights by constitution, everyone need to know their fundamental rights and responsibilities and implications of these rights and responsibilities in his life for survival and growth.

Adv. Chandrakant Shinde started the session by explaining what human rights are. He said Human rights are rights inherent to all human beings, regardless of race, sex, nationality, ethnicity, language, religion, or any other status. Human rights include the right to life and liberty, freedom from slavery and torture, freedom of opinion and expression, the right to work and education, and many more. Everyone is entitled to these rights, without discrimination.

He discussed the classification of rights such as legal right, labors rights, farmer's rights, and constitutional rights. All they are localized rights as they differ from country to country and class to class.

He said human rights is a global concept. The human rights are given in our constitution. These rights are the basic rights and freedoms that belong to every person in the world. They can never be taken away.

The basic rights are like liberty, dignity, justice, equality, respect and independence.

He elaborated the sources of human rights. They are Universal declaration of human rights of 1948 after the Second World War, International treaties and covalence, International customs, judicial decisions and official documents.

He elaborated on the evolution of human rights and discussed the types of human rights are civil and political rights, economic and social rights, and collective rights.

He also quoted Virginia declaration 11776. This declaration specifies number of fundamental rights. It states that all men are by nature are equally free, independent and have certain inherent rights.

He interacted with the students to solve their queries and shared his experience and valuable knowledge.

He said human rights need be a part of everyone's education. As we have rights, as well we have duties that we should not disturb others' lives, there should not be any abuse or injustice. If these rights are violated, person can approach the human rights commission at central level as well as state level.

The session was concluded with vote of thanks by Dr. Pushpraj Wagh.

Report on : "My Journey as an Successful Entrepreneur"

International Institute of Management Science's Institutions Innovation Council (IIC) had organised a session on "My Journey as a successful Entrepreneur" on 22nd January, 2022. The Speaker for the event was Mr Dattatraya Ambulkar, HR Management and Entrepreneurship Consultant.

Dr. Shivaji Mundhe, Director –International Institute of Management Science welcomed the participants and introduced the speaker to the audience who were connected via MSTeams. There were around 110 participant students and the webinar was an eye opener to the budding aspirants who wanted to bloom in the field.

Mr Ambulkar guided the students to have strong initiative, self-confidence, desire to persuade the dream; monitoring and that will play a vital role in this entrepreneurial process. He also stressed that every aspirant who think of becoming an entrepreneur must do his or her homework regarding the uniqueness, scalability as well as innovativeness of the product that he is to produce. He shared his experience of his innovation and entrepreneurial journey. The session overall was highly informative, captivating, and enlightening. It stimulated the minds and inspired the participants to take a step towards being an entrepreneur.

The Vote of thanks was delivered by Dr. Vandana Mohanty, IQAC Co-ordinator, IIMS.
