Report on Yashopravesh (MBA & MCA Induction Programme) - 2024 Day 2 Outbound Activity at Meher Retreat, Yavat Pune

Date: September 21, 2024

Location: Meher Retreat, Yavat Pune

Organized by: Yashaswi Education Society's International Institute of Management Science (IIMS), Chinchwad

On the second day of the Yashopravesh induction programme, students engaged in an exciting outbound activity at Meher Retreat, Yavat Pune. This day was designed to foster teamwork, enhance communication skills, and provide a refreshing break from the classroom environment.

The day began early with students arriving at Meher Retreat, where they were welcomed by the retreat staff. After a brief orientation about the day's activities, students were divided into teams to promote collaboration and camaraderie.

Activity Highlights

1. Team-Building Exercises:

The morning commenced with a series of team-building activities aimed at breaking the ice and encouraging interaction among students. These activities included trust exercises, problem-solving tasks, and group challenges that required effective communication and teamwork. Participants enthusiastically engaged in these tasks, forging new friendships and strengthening bonds.

2. Water Sports:

Following the team-building exercises, students took to the water for an exhilarating water sports session. Activities included paddle boating. The thrill of water sports not only provided a refreshing experience but also emphasized the importance of teamwork as students collaborated to navigate the water effectively.

3. Agro-Tourism Activities:

In the afternoon, students participated in agro-tourism activities that showcased the agricultural practices of the region. They toured local farms, learning about sustainable farming techniques and the importance of agro-tourism in supporting local economies. This experience offered students insights into the intersection of agriculture and tourism management, aligning with their academic pursuits.

4. Management Games:

The day concluded with engaging management games designed to challenge students' strategic thinking and decision-making skills. These games provided a fun yet competitive environment, allowing students to apply theoretical knowledge in practical scenarios. The sessions were lively, with participants demonstrating creativity and leadership.

Conclusion

The outbound activity at Meher Retreat was a resounding success, providing students with a blend of learning and adventure. By engaging in team-building, water sports, agro-tourism, and management games, participants not only enhanced their skills but also created lasting memories. The experience was invaluable in promoting teamwork and fostering a sense of community among the new students at IIMS.

Overall, Day 2 of the Yashopravesh induction programme successfully complemented the academic aspects of their journey, ensuring a well-rounded introduction to their studies and life at IIMS. The event was coordinated seamlessly by faculty and student coordinators, contributing to a positive and enriching experience for all attendees.
